Mr. Nathaniel J. Palzer,
120 Broadway,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Palzer:

I have again checked up the records in Headquarters relative to Jane Gibson under the various aliases, Mary Eisleitner, May Ray, Janette Hilton, Anna King, Jane Gibson, Jane Easton, Kesserling, Kitchke, and Leitner, and find that the records do not show that arrests have been made of any persons of the names mentioned with the exception of May Ray and Anna King.

As I told you previously, the picture of May Ray bears a slight resemblance to the picture of Jane Gibson, but it is the consensus of opinion among the experts in Headquarters that May Ray and Jane Gibson are not the same persons.

I have received the record and picture of Anna King from St. Louis, Mo. and you will see that there is no resemblance whatever between Anna King and Jane Gibson. I am sorry that we were not able to establish the connection between Jane Gibson and the names mentioned.

Very truly yours,

Daniel E. Costigan

DEC:LEN
enclosures

Dear Sir:

Inclosed is photograph with description and bertillon measurements of Agnes Jones, alias Kline, alias Martin, et., our #3636, arrested here October 25, 1904, whom we believe is the Anna King referred to in your letter of October 15, 1926.

She was taken into custody when she called to see Jerry Franklin Ferguson, alias John Doe, notorious safe blower and train robber, and an associate of William B. Morris, alias C.C. Blair; Albert Rosenauer, alias Rose, and Harry Vaughn, alias "New York Harry". Ferguson was arrested October 23, 1904, at which time he was carrying two loaded revolvers and dropped a bottle containing nitro-glycerin injuring himself.

Harry Vahghn, alias "New York Harry", was arrested October 21, 1904, at 14th and Pine Streets. Three detectives then went to a room at 1324 Pine Streets to arrest Morris and Rosenauer, and in a gun battle which followed, the three detectives, as well as Morris and Rosenauer, were shot to death.

Agnes Jones, alias Kline, etc., was living in a house of prostitution at 1512 Spruce Street and when arrested told of living in St. Louis and New York with Jerry Franklin Ferguson, also advised of his escape from jail at Neosho, Missouri. She was released and has not since been handled by our bureau of identification.

Yours very truly

Albert W. Schwartz,
Acting Chief of Police.
